Stars Strut Their Stuff At Wonderland's Audition Tour

VAUGHAN, ONTARIO--Paramount Canada's Wonderland and the Paramount Parks' Entertainment Division are gearing up for the 2001 season with a talent search to cast this year's exciting new shows. Those wishing to audition for acting, singing, dancing or theatre technician positions should call the Entertainment Hotline at (905) 832-7454 for more information.

The media are invited to attend a special sneak preview of the tour on Saturday, January 27, between 1 pm and 3 pm. Members of the media wishing to attend the preview, or requiring further information about the tour, should call Kris Williams at (905) 832-7482.

Auditions will be held in Windsor at the Mackenzie Hall Cultural Centre on January 31 and at the University of Toronto at St. Vladimir's Institute on February 1 and 2. On February 3 and 4, the tour returns to Paramount Canada's Wonderland. Media requiring interviews, please plan to attend the preview on Saturday, January 27 at Paramount Canada's Wonderland, between 1pm and 3pm.

The Entertainment Division at Paramount Parks has been creating and casting theme park shows for over 20 years. Being discovered by Paramount Parks is a great start to a career in show business as many of our alumni have gone on to become stars of the stage and screen.

Paramount Canada's Wonderland is operated by Paramount Parks. Paramount Parks is a unit of Viacom. Viacom is the No. 1 vehicle in the world for advertisers, with preeminent positions in broadcast and cable television, radio, outdoor advertising and online.

Shows:

Scooby-Doo and the Ghost in the Attic

Join Scooby-Doo, Velma and Shaggy as they get caught up in another mystery. The audience is brought along for the ride as this gang of loveable characters tries to figure out who is behind the noises in the attic. Search for clues, discover secrets and investigate along with Scooby-Doo and his friends.

Graveyard Shift

This creepy collection of shock-and-roll, rhythm-and-ooze singers and dancers are working the graveyard shift at The Crypt, performing their 'ghoulist' top 40 tunes, from classic rock to contemporary hits.
